

Robert R. Spitzer

Class of 1939

Recognized for his business leadership and his commitment to solving major problems associated with world hunger and poverty.

- UW- Madison: BS in Agriculture, MS in Nutrition and Biochemistry, and Ph.D. in Nutrition and Medical Physiology
- Honorary degrees from Milton College, Cardinal Stritch University and Milwaukee School of Engineering (MSOE)
- President, MSOE 1977-1991
- Director and Senior Mentor, Kikkoman Foods, ~~Walworth and Tokyo~~

Dr. Spitzer has served:

- Trustee and Director, Roundy's Foods
- Director, Maple Leaf Farms and State Financial Bank
- ~~Director, State Financial Bank~~
- Coordinator, Food for Peace Program, U.S. State Department
- U.S. Delegate, World Food Program, United Nations
- President, Murphy Products Company, Burlington, WI
- President, American Feed Manufacturers Association

- Chairman, Wisconsin Manufacturers Association
- Founding Chairman, Norman Vincent Peale ~~National~~ Advisory Cabinet
- President, Rotary Clubs of Milwaukee and Burlington

Author: No Need for Hunger, American Challenge, Family Organizer Enterprise Collection and How to Help the Hungry Feed Themselves.

Four-time recipient, George Washington Freedom Foundation Award for his film and literary work.

World Citizen Award, International Institute of Wisconsin, 1998
Nominee, World Food Prize, 2001

April 11, 2005